EDITORIAL NOTE

Food photography is both an art and a technical discipline. Photographer Andrejs Zavadskis captures food the way it deserves to be seen – with warm, natural tones, exquisite texture rendering, and composition that tells a story about taste and experience. The portfolio includes clean, minimalist product shots on neutral backgrounds for advertising use, as well as richly atmospheric plate compositions for restaurant menus and lifestyle content. Every session involves meticulous attention to food preparation, props, lighting, and styling, ensuring the resulting image conveys not just the appearance but the flavour and feeling...
