EDITORIAL NOTE

Exterior and architectural photography is the art of finding the precise vantage point at which a building or landscape reveals its full character – proportions, textures, light, and context. Photographer Andrejs Zavadskis photographs building facades, urban compositions, farmhouses, and landscapes across Latvia and internationally, producing images with strong visual and emotional impact. The portfolio encompasses themes from Riga's modernist architecture to the seasonal diversity of the Latvian countryside, as well as historic Art Nouveau facades that make Riga one of the world's most remarkable architectu...
