EDITORIAL NOTE

Interior photography is the art of storytelling through space – conveying proportions, light, materials, and the atmosphere created by design as a whole. Photographer Andrejs Zavadskis works with architects, interior designers, hotels, restaurants, and property developers to create images that do full justice to the craft invested in each space. The portfolio includes clean, light-filled modern apartment compositions as well as richer, more dramatic imagery of luxury rooms and hospitality venues featuring wood, stone, and metal accents. Light is the most critical element – Andrejs expertly combines natural and...
